STRATEGIC PLANNING

Representative Marietta continued discussion on Eagleview (aerial mapping) from the last meeting. Hank Schecher sent the power point presentation slides to Representative Marietta. Representative Marietta sent the slides to the full Board. Representative Marietta stated that pricing information would be important before it goes to the full Board.

Hank Schecher gave updates from Matt (Eagleview) after sending him the grid of all the tax map parcels information. Mr. Schecher wants find out from other counties what the benefits were that they received in the town taxable amounts. Mr. Schecher mentioned he will present in a factual and actual matter once he has the information. Representative Marietta and Mr. Schecher mentioned that there are many other benefits that can be utilized from the broader potential use of this mapping.

Representative Marietta mentioned that the Human Services Plan has been completed and the committee will review and formalize.

The committee discussed a schedule as to when to reach out to department heads about their work plans and updates. Brian Pokorny suggested that it would add value doing this prior or during the budget process.

Representative Marietta mentioned that there will be more emphasis on the technology priority plan/projects at the next meeting with Brian Pokorny giving an overview with an open invite to the full Board.

There being no further business to discuss, the committee adjourned.
