RESOLUTION NO. 135

RESOLUTION—RECOMMENDING REVIEW OF AND REVISIONS IN SOCIAL WELFARE EXPENDITURES AND FUNCTIONS—LYND, SAUNDERS, RATHBUN, DOWNIE

Messrs. Lynd, Saunders, Rathbun and Downie offer the following preamble and resolution, and move the adoption of the resolution:
WHEREAS, the legislature of the State of New York, through the so-called medical aid laws, has committed taxpayers of the State of New York to ever-burgeoning and excessively burdening taxation; and

WHEREAS, it is now proposed that other welfare programs be administered in a way similar to that of medicaid in that eligibility for assistance under the other programs will be established by a certification without investigation or reasonable consideration of financial means; and
